

Saturday Morning, February 11th 2012

A 400th Anniversary Celebration of the King James Bible

[According to David Norton's account: The actual publication of the 1611 translation may have been as late as February 1612]

Board Room

The University of King's College, 2nd Floor A&A, 6350 Coburg Rd, Halifax

NS/PEI Branch of the Prayer Book Society

- 9:45 Coffee and Muffins
- 10:00 The Rev'd David Curry (King's/Edgehill)
"William Tyndale:
a good translation made better"
- 10:45 George Cooper QC
"An Appreciation:
Four Centuries of English Prose"
- 11:30 Coffee
- 11:45 Dr Stephen Snobelen (King's College)
"Exceeding Magnificall':
The King James Bible at 400"
- 12:30 Discussion
- 12:45 Luncheon in the King's SCR

All Welcome; however, notice that you hope to attend the luncheon would be greatly appreciated: please e-mail: will.barton.g24@gmail.com